From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated July 21.

Warſaw, July 7.

WE ſee no likelihood yet of the meeting of the General Diet ſummon'd by the Cardinal Primate to be held here the 11th of this Month. Monſieur Smiegielski, who while he was here with his Troops, was treated and had Preſents given him by our Magiſtrates, is gone from hence to Brzeze Litewski, whither he has ſent the Caſtellan of Sendomir and ſeveral Deputies of that Palatinate whom he took at Opatowitz. Yeſterday ſome Swediſh Commiſſaries arriv'd here, being ſent by their General who continues in the Neighbourhood of Lowitz with ſeveral thouſand Men. In the Diet of the Palatinate of Cracow held at Proſowitz, 24 Deputies were nominated to repair to the General Diet here, and Proteſtations were drawn up againſt the Proceeding of Monſieur Smiegielski in ſeizing and carrying off the Deputies of Sendomir. Letters of the 27th of the laſt Month from Wilna ſay, That the Muſcovites are upon the March, though 'tis not certainly known what Route they have taken, but 'tis certain they are not gone towards Brzeze Litewski where King Auguſtus's Saxon Troops are.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated July 21.

Amſterdam July 21. Letters from Saxony dated the 15th of this Month, tell us the Meeting of the Diet at Warſaw was yet uncertain; becauſe 'twas preſum'd the Cardinal Primate would be deterr'd by the Pope's Brief (or Letter) from proceeding any farther in that Affair. That Letter expreſly and in very ſtrong Terms forbids the Cardinal, together with all the other Biſhops of the Kingdom of Poland, to concern themſelves in any manner in the Crowning of the New King Staniſlaus; under the Penalty of Suſpenſion from all Eccleſiaſtical Functions, and of being interdicted entrance into the Church, ipſo facto, and without any further Declaration; all Conſtitutions, Ordinances, or Decrees to the contrary notwithſtanding. 'Tis ſaid the Cardinal Primate ſhew'd no little Surprize, when this Letter was deliver'd to him.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated July 23.

Hildeſheim, July 17. They write from Berlin, that the Pope has ſent a ſecond Brief to the Cardinal Primate of Poland, whereby he ſuſpends that Prelate from the Exerciſe of all Eccleſiaſtical Offices, and ſequeſters the Revenues of his Archbiſhoprick of Gneſna. From Warſaw 'tis advis'd, That the Great Chamberlain of the Crown, and the General of the Guards, had join'd the Army of the Crown near Horodlo, where the Under General of that Army is alſo arriv'd. The 3d Inſtant a Courier brought an Accounr to Warſaw, that the Saxon Troops were about to march thither from Brzeze; and ſeeing the Czar of Muſcovy with his Troops is alſo in Motion, and that there was no News of any Swedes being detach'd towards Warſaw, 'twas believ'd there, the Diet ſummon'd by the Cardinal Primate will not think it ſafe to meet, tho' a Report was ſpread that General Stromberg would come thither with his Troops from Cracow, and bring with him Deputies from that part of the Country.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 21.

Leiden, July 21. Letters from Dreſden of the 15th Inſtant adviſe, that King Auguſtus of Poland holds frequent Councils, to deliberate which way he had beſt take to return into his Kingdom with the Troops he brought from theuce towards the End of laſt Year; that thoſe Troops continue encamp'd in 3 ſeveral Bodies near Dreſden, Torgau, and the Frontier of Luſatia; and that 'twas believ'd they will not march towards Poland before the King of Sweden's Troops have broken up from the Frontier of Sileſia, and are march'd farther into Poland. In the mean time they had Advice, that the Staroſt Smiegielski keeps moving in the Dukedom of Maſura, with a Body of Poles and Saxons, to hinder the holding of the little Diets ſummon'd by the Cardinal, in favour of the new K. Staniſlaus; that 'twas believ'd the Conferences appointed to be held at Cracow would not end to the Advantage of the ſaid new King; and that the King of Sweden who continues at Rawitz in Great Poland, had been oblig'd to ſend towards Cracow, a Detachment of 2 or 3000 Men, to obſerve the Staroſt Smiegelski.

Dreſden, July 17. The King of Poland went from hence the 15th to Meyſſen, Torgau, and other Places, to take a Review of his Troops; his Majeſty will go next to the upper Luſatia. The freſheſt Advices from Poland tell us, the new elected King Staniſlaus is very ſick, ſo that he cannot go to Warſaw. The Cardinal Primate of Poland is ſtill at Dantzick, and having receiv'd the Pope's ſecond Letter is at a Loſs what Meaſures to take, and undetermin'd whether to go to Warſaw or continue where he is. Letters from Dantzick of the 10th Inſtant tell us, that General Meyerfeld had ſignified to the Magiſtrates, that he has receiv'd Orders from the King of Sweden his Maſter to quarter 1000 Men whom he commands in the Country adjacent and belonging to their City, and that he is to let them live at Diſcretion there, till the City give Satisfaction to certain Demands of the King his Maſter, relating to the Weywod of Marienbourg and Prince Radzevil, weereof we have not yet a diſtinct Accounr.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated July 21.

Hamburg, July 17. Letters from Poland tell us, That the 22d of laſt Month the Czar of Muſcovy arriv'd in good Health at Ploskow, and that he has caus'd his Troops that were there to take their March towards Wilna and Grodno: The Swedes in Courland have thereupon put themſelves in Motion. The Marſhal of the Royal Confederacy, the Count of Denhoff, Prince Wieſnowiski, Monſieur Ogiński, the Great Chancellour of Lithuania, and ſeveral Perſons of Note of the Party of King Axguſtus, are met at Brzeze to hold a Council, to conſider where and in what manner it may be beſt for the Forces of King Auguſtus and the Czar of Muſcovy to act this Campaign.

From the Harlem Courant, dated July 25.

Hamburg, July 21. They write from Poland, that no Deputies were yet come to Warſaw; that his Czariſh Majeſty arriv'd at Wilna the 6th Inſtant; and that the Prince of Muſcovy and General Czeremet are to act againſt the Swedes in Courland, while the Czar himſelf marches another Way.

Remarks upon Mr. Clark's Sermons Preach'd at St. Paul's against Hobbs, Spinoza, and other Atheists, wherein 'tis demonstrated: 1. That Mr. C. by the Sceptical Hypothesis he imploys, absolutely cuts off all possible Means of knowing the Nature, or of proving the Existance of the one only True God against Hobbs, Spinoza, or any other Atheist whatever. 2. That in Reference to God, or Spirits, he reduces Humane Understanding, to the most Incurable rate of Scepticism. These Two Particulars are handled and prov'd Geometrically. 3. The Reasons are produced which convince the Author of this Paper, that those Sermons do rather Establish than Destroy, do rather Confirm than Confute Spinoza's Hypothesis, 4to. Printed for Jonathan Robinson at the Golden Lion in St. Paul's Church-yard. Price Sticht 6.
